

PHOTO CREDIT: TRISTAN FEWINGS

The Ethics of Storytelling: Film Screening, Author Talk, & Panel Discussion

Join the UB Journalism Program as we explore the ethical considerations of narrative-driven professionals. Brian O'Hare will start the event with a screening of his recent production Rizoo a film by Azadeh Navai. Following the screening, Brian will discuss his work as a producer, director, and author and read from his Veteran's Writing Award book of short stories Surrender. The event will conclude with a panel of professionals discussing the ethics and efficacy of storytelling.

Light refreshments served

DATE: May 2, 2024

TIME: 5:30-8:00

LOCATION: Alumni Arena 97

University at Buffalo North Campus

Event is free but requires registration

EVENT SCHEDULE

5:30-6:00

Screening of Rizoo a film by Azadeh Navai, produced by Brian O'Hare

6:00-6:30

Brian O'Hare

Reading & Discussion

6:30-7:00

Mingling & light refreshments

7:00-7:45

PANEL DISCUSSION

Deb Sur, Journalist for the Buffalo News

Joshua Maloni, Managing editor for Niagara Frontier Publications

Melanie Green, Professor of Communications University at Buffalo

EVENT SPONSOR:

UB Journalism Certificate Program & Robert Banas

For questions contact Jay Barber. jkbarber@buffalo.edu