The Research Cluster on Power and Resistance in Latin America presents:

Patriots and Traitors in Cuba: Explaining the Mariel Boatlift of 1980

March 2, 2020
2:30 - 4:00 pm
303 Tier Building

Lillian Guerra is Professor of Cuban and Caribbean History at the University of Florida. She is the author of four scholarly books of history, including three books on Cuba, as well as several books of Spanish-language poetry and a book of short stories published in Spain, Ecuador and Cuba. Born in New York to Cuban exile parents, she grew up in Kansas and Miami.

Questions?
Contact umih@umanitoba.ca