Stefan Engels was appointed professor of organ and Leah Fullinwider Centennial Chair in Music Performance at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, in 2014, where he is also head of the organ department at the Meadows School of the Arts. The position is the first endowed Centennial Chair in Meadows, made possible by a gift from Sarah and Ross Perot, Jr., in honor of Sarah's mother, Mrs. Leah Fullinwider.

Engels joined SMU from one of Europe's oldest and most prestigious musical institutions, the University of Music and Performing Arts "Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy" in Leipzig, Germany, where he had served as professor of organ from 2005 until 2015. Prior to that he was associate professor of organ and chair of the organ department at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N.J., from 1999 to 2005.

During his appointment in Leipzig, Engels shaped the university's Organ and Church Music Institute into a center for organ performance and organ pedagogy of international acclaim. He also founded and served as artistic director of the European Organ Academy Leipzig, which attracts faculty and students from around the world. Furthermore, as an advocate and specialist for the music of the late-Romantic German composer Sigfrid Karg-Elert, he founded the Karg-Elert Festival in Leipzig, demonstrating and discovering the unique works of this Leipzig composer.

From 2006 until 2012 Engels was artistic director of the Jordan International Organ Competition based at Columbus State University in Columbus, Ga. As a juror, he is in frequent demand at international organ competitions such as the Mendelssohn Competition, the Bach Competition and the Deutscher Musikwettbewerb, all in Germany, as well as the St. Albans International Organ Festival, the Canadian International Organ Competition and the Miami International Organ Competition.

Engels maintains a vigorous international concert schedule and is a sought-after teacher, having presented lectures and master classes across Europe, North America, South Korea and Russia. Recital engagements have included Smetana Hall in Prague, St. Paul's Cathedral in London, Victoria Hall in Geneva, the Berlin Philharmonic, St. Petersburg Philharmonic, Moscow Cathedral, KKL in Luzern, Gewandhaus Leipzig, Torch Centre in Seoul, St. Augustine in Vienna, Chartres Cathedral, Hallgrímskirkja Reykjavík, Sydney Cathedral, St. Jakobi Lübeck, St. Michaels Hamburg, Harvard University, the Cleveland Museum of Art, the Meyerson Symphony Center in Dallas, King's College Cambridge, Spivey Hall in Atlanta, Balboa Park in San Diego and the Cadet Chapel of West Point. He was a featured recitalist at the 2006 national AGO convention in Chicago and is a featured recitalist at three regional AGO conventions scheduled for summer 2017.

Engels has recorded two highly acclaimed CDs with works by Marcel Dupré on the Naxos label, and one with works of Karg-Elert, Reger, Messiaen and Germani on the Priory label as part of their Great European Organ Series. His specialization in the organ works of Sigfrid Karg-Elert has resulted in the world premiere recording of the complete organ works of Karg-Elert, also on the Priory label.

This recording project came to its completion in 2017 with 15 CDs, which have been reviewed to the highest international critical acclaim: "... this series will surely stand as the greatest project the gramophone has achieved in organ music for very many years..." (Choir & Organ); "... fantastic volumes of some of the most creative and complex organ music ever written has been released by Priory in this groundbreaking series of Karg-Elert's complete organ works - much of it unrecorded ... Engels has the measure of both music and instrument - there is much to marvel at here ..." (prestoclassical.co.uk) "Engels is a player of exceptional talent and in his hands Karg-Elert receives as sympathetic an advocacy as one could ever imagine ..." (International Record Guide) "Stefan Engels' performance is superlative..." (Organists Review) "Engels delivers interpretations that may never be bettered ... A magnificent disc."(Gramophone)

Engels received his broad musical education in Germany and the United States. He studied organ, piano, harpsichord, choral conducting and church music at universities in Aachen, Düsseldorf and Cologne. From 1993 until 1998 he pursued further organ studies with Wolfgang Rübsam in Chicago and the late Robert Anderson in Dallas, receiving an Artist Certificate degree from SMU Meadows in 1995. He achieved his international breakthrough when he was awarded the "Concerto Gold Medal" at the 1998 Calgary International Organ Competition. Since then, he has been represented by Karen McFarlane Artists Inc. of Cleveland, Ohio.

Text and translation for Te Deum Laudamus BWV 725

Lord God, we praise you,

Lord God, we thank you.

You, Father, in eternity are honored by the world far and wide.

All the angels and host of heaven and what serves your honor, the cherubim and seraphim also sing always with loud voice

"Holy is our God,

holy is our God,

holy is our God, the Lord of Sabaoth."

Your divine power and glory fills heaven and earth.

The company of the twelve holy apostles and all the devoted prophets together with all the beloved martyrs praise you , Lord, with a great cry.

The whole holy Christian church praises you on earth always,

you, God our Father on the highest throne,

your true and only Son,

the Holy Spirit and our dear comforter are praised and honored rightly.

You are the king of glory, Jesus Christ, eternal Son of god the Father;

you have not disdained the Virgin's womb to redeem the human race.

You have destroyed the power of death and brought all Christians to heaven.

You sit at the right hand of God with all glory in the Father's kingdom.

You will be the judge

off all the living and the dead

Now help us, Lord, your servants, whom you have redeemed with your precious blood,

let us have a share in heaven with the saints in eternal salvation.

Help your people, Lord Jesus Christ, and bless your inheritance tend and care for them at all times and raise them high in eternity.

Day by day, Lord god, we praise you and honor your name continually

Guard us this day, O faithful God, from all sin and wrongdoing.

Be merciful to us, O Lord God, be merciful to us in all our troubles.

Show us your compassion

since our hope depends on you.

In you we hope, dear Lord, grant that we may never be put to shame.

Amen.
