Executive Presence:
Demystifying the Leadership X Factor

Speaker
Dr. Dahlia Hylton
Director of the Office of Multicultural Affairs

Do you have the communication skills to be heard, the gravitas to gain respect, and an appearance that garners positive professional interest? Join us in a fast paced conversation around this new "currency" of leadership. Inspired by the research of Sylvia Ann Hewlett, Executive Presence has served as a catalyst of leadership development for marginalized groups by demonstrating the dynamic combination of what you say, what you do, and how you show up.

Join Dr. Dahlia Hylton, Director for the Office of Multicultural Affairs for a practical and enlightening conversation on demystifying the leadership X factor.
