*This event is sponsored by the Mountaineer Health Initiative:
Mountaineers driving collaborations to improve the health of West Virginians.*

(formerly the WVU Health Disparities Program)

- Invited speakers from diverse disciplines across campus will present information on the topic of Appalachian poverty and the effects on West Virginians.
- Discuss how these disparities contribute to poor health outcomes and what role WVU will play in finding meaningful solutions.
- Time for Q&A and networking after the presentations.
- Provost Joyce McConnell will moderate.
