A Midsummer Night's Dream

Written by William Shakespeare
Directed by Payden Ackerman
"The course of true love never did run smooth..." One of Shakespeare's most popular works and widely produced around the world, Midsummer has delighted audiences for generations. Four young lovers run away to a moonlit forest, a troop of inept actors rehearse a play, and a fairy King and Queen feud as their merry band of sprites play tricks on these mortals. This classic Elizabethan comedy is transported to the woods of California in the late 1960's, set amid the backdrop of Vietnam, the hippie movement and music of Woodstock.
