2025 LATIN AMERICAN FILM FESTIVAL—
Tuesday, September 16th through Thursday, September 18th

Please join us for a three-night celebration of Latin American cinema! Each evening will feature powerful films that highlight the Latin American diaspora through people's lives, histories, and cultures. Below you can find more details about each evening.

All screenings are FREE and open to the public.
Students, faculty, staff, and community members are all welcome!

THE SETTLERS (dir. Felipe Gálvez Haberle, 2023)

DATE: Tuesday, September 16th

TIME: 7:00-9:15pm

LOCATION: Hallwalls Contemporary Arts Center (341 Delaware Ave.)
Chile, 1901. Three horsemen embark on an expedition, tasked with securing a wealthy landowner's vast property. Accompanying a British lieutenant and an American mercenary is mestizo marksman Segundo, who comes to realize their true mission is to violently "remove" the indigenous population. (Source: MUBI.com). A conversation with Dr. Carlos Amador, Associate Professor of Romance Languages and Literatures, and Dr. Mishuana Goeman, Professor and Chair of Indigenous Studies, will follow.
